THIRD DAY

FRIDAY, September 5th, 1919.

Opening.—Bishop Stuntz conducted the devotional service, speaking on the theme of personal work and basing his address upon John 1:42, after which the Conference was called to order in business session.

Journal.—The journal was read, corrected and approved.

White Cross—The report of the special committee on the proposed White Cross organization was read by W. P. Stoddard, secretary of the committee and on his motion the report as follows was adopted:

1. We recommend the adoption of the proposed White Cross organization through the medium of the Iowa Methodist Hospital, substantially as outlined by the Corresponding Secretary, L. O. Jones, at this session.

2. Inasmuch as it seems to us essential to go forward immediately with the White Cross movement, through the medium of our Iowa Hospital, and inasmuch as there cannot be uniform action of the patronizing conferences of the hospital until the fall of 1920, we recommend a commission of two ministers and two laymen from each of the four English speaking conferences of Iowa; and of one minister and one laymen from each of the foreign speaking patronizing conferences of the hospital.

If enough of the other conferences of the state shall approve our action and elect members to this commission as recommended, to make the total number elected equal three-fourths of the total number called for in the recommendation, the commission shall have authority to proceed as follows:

(a). It shall have power to outline the White Cross policy, plan a general program for the year 1919-1920 for the conferences represented, and its action shall be final for the said year.

(b). The commission shall report to the annual conferences represented at their sessions in 1920, recommending a permanent White Cross policy, plan and program for the consideration of the conferences at interest and for their adoption.

3. In addition to the above suggested membership, we further recommend that Bishop Stuntz be chairman of the committee, and that he be requested to write the statement of the mission, purpose, and goal of the White Cross for the journal of the Iowa Conference session of 1919.

4. We recommend the banner design as submitted. In no case is there to be any printing on the cross, but the name, Iowa Methodist Hospital, may appear below the circle.

We suggest as hospital Sunday the second Sunday before Christmas each year, at which time the minister shall enroll members and collect fees in envelopes provided.

Statement.—In accordance with the above action Bishop Stuntz prepared the following statement. "The Iowa Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church hereby expresses its hearty approval of the WHITE CROSS plan with its provisions for annual memberships at one dollar each for the support of the Iowa Methodist Hospital, and for the healing ministry of our Lord wherever this simple organization may help in the relief of sick and suffering humanity. We pledge our best efforts to secure members, and pray that the ministry of the WHITE CROSS through our churches in times of peace may come to be as significant as the Red Cross has become in the stress of war."

Order of the Day.—The order of the day was called and Bishop Stuntz appointed the following to serve as tellers, J. H. Cudlipp, O. E. McBride, J. F. Robertson and J. A. Monkman. C. B. The Home Missionary work of the Methodist Episcopal church is at present administered by several independent organizations which have been authorized by the General Conference:

- (1) The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension;
- (2) The Woman's Home Missionary Society;
- (3) The General Deaconess Board; and
- (4) About seventy City Societies.

The church has sometimes suffered embarrassment because of a lack of effective co-operation between our various Home Missionary organizations, resulting in duplication of effort, and rivalry in seeking local support, thus involving waste and endangering harmony.

Therefore, we, the members of the Newark Conference, do respectfully memorialize the General Conference of 1920 that they consider the question of such co-ordination of these organizations that a unified administration be provided and re-duplication and misunderstanding eliminated.

Regarding the New Jersey Conference concerning the course of study after consideration of the memorial, the Conference authorized the committee to prepare a memorial in harmony with the ideas voiced in the discussion. See report of Special Committee on Memorials.

REPORTS---DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

Dear Bishop Stuntz and Brethren:

If difficulties are a challenge, then this year has been one to dare us to our best. We began the year amidst the excitement of the war. Then came the "flu" and all of our churches were under quarantine from three to eight weeks.

Next came the armistice and soon the returning of the loved ones. Of course, many received their boys with thankful hearts, but the general tendency was and is to plunge deeper than ever into pleasure and money making. Instead of finding their way to the house of God for worship and thanksgiving, they have little time for anything but pleasure or money making.

Several of the charges tried to hold special meetings after the quarantine but found the people afraid to come and by the time the fear of the flu had somewhat subsided the roads were bad, and roads and weather continued unfavorable most of the winter. In some charges the pastors were able to do a large amount of pastoral visiting, but in many others the people preferred not to have even the minister come.

II. Since the scourge of the flu the people have rallied to the public services, which have been largely devoted to the Centenary with its message of consecration of self and money to the cause of the Lord. In my judgment we have never had a year of more faithful preaching of sacrificial living and giving.

Our people are more than ever interested in the Kingdom, and many are not only giving of their means but are seeking a better preparation for service in the enriching of their own experiences of salvation and endowment. Thank the Lord for all the earnest and devoted men and women who know the Lord and are standing by His work in a wonderful way.

III. We have had the usual number of conferences and conventions. Birmingham entertained the fall session of the District Conference, and West Burlington the spring session. Both conferences were well attended and taken care of with fine hospitality.

The District Epworth League Convention met in First church, Burlington. Though not as well attended as in former years, it was fine in spirit and enthusiasm and President Bentzinger and his cabinet are to be congratulated on the splendid program.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies had good conventions, and though not showing any great gain in membership they show a nice advance in collections and educational work among their members and constituency.

We also held a Centenary Convention in First church, Burlington, and were privileged to have the services of Brown, Musser, Bear and Parker.

IV. We have had an increase in salaries amounting to over two and a half thousand dollars and they have been more promptly paid than in any year of my experience in the District work. This shows an increase of six and one-fifth per cent in cash salary over against an increase in the cost of living, since 1913 to June, 1919, according to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, of 88 per cent. Street cleaners in Chicago, with a team, get $2,700 per year. The average salary, including house rent, in our District is $1,507.79, and the average circuit salary, including rent, is $1,299.32. Street cleaner and team $2,700. Preacher and team or Ford, $1,299.32. Wonder of wonders, no strikes among our preachers! They are cheerful, hard working men and many of the churches are planning to do better by them next year.

We have the following to report in the matter of repairs, improvements and debt paying: Harrison Avenue, Burlington, put down a new carpet, papered and improved at an expense of $456. Grace Church has paid $100 on the parsonage debt. Danville and Long Creek have expended for improvements, etc., $738. Farmington paid $165 on their church debt. Hillsboro and Big Mound have spent $100 for repairs. Keokuk has paid $506 on their church debt and $891 for redecorating and repairing. Mt. Zion, on the Libertyville charge, has expended $130 in improvements. Mediapolis is repairing and making modern their parsonage at a cost of $800. Santa Fe Avenue has paid on church debt $1,406 and $50 on parsonage repairs. Mt. Pleasant has their entire church debt of $12,500 more than subscribed, with their $30,000 on their Centenary quota, makes a neat sum in subscriptions for one year. New London has paid their church debt of $2,700 and $215 on parsonage repairs. Kingston has $600 subscribed on the church debt. Yarmouth has repaired and painted their parsonage at an expense of $200. Our properties are all well insured and, as a rule, kept in good condition.

V. Iowa Wesleyan had a good year, though running under difficulties. The reorganization of the School of Music has proven a success. With a strengthened faculty and our optimistic President we are in for good sailing. In the midst of the year the District Superintendents were brought face to face with the question of putting the College into the five-year contract of the Centenary askings for the Conference and feeling it should not be bound up for five years at fifty cents per member, they sent out the apportionments at one dollar per member instead. They claim no authority for such action, only a purpose to do the right thing by the College. I sincerely trust that the Conference will back us in this matter. Iowa Wesleyan must have a gymnasium or give up trying to be a co-educational school, or any school so far as that is concerned. Since the going of the Y. M. C. A., we are without any gymnasium facilities. Is there not somewhere in this great Iowa a friend who can and will invest $75,000 to $100,000 in the young manhood of our Conference? The college buildings are being repaired and renovated and we hope during the next year to put the lights on the front gate. May our College, with all of the other growth it is making, grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour. Blessings on the new President, Dr. U. S. Smith.

VI. I am sorry to report that our Centenary was not a success as to quota. I think we have about $234,000 subscribed to date. Many who would not sign for the five years, have promised to do as well or better next year and if the matter is followed up as it should be I think we can make some gains year by year. The majority of our people have proven themselves loyal to Him and His Kingdom enterprise, but some, even of large means, played the slacker and made one excuse after another to keep their money and betray the Lord in this day of the greatest fight against sin the world has ever witnessed.

VII. We are hoping and planning for the greatest revival of our history. If we meet the minimum set by the Cleveland meeting, we must have 2,750 conversions during the coming ten months. We expect to follow the plans outlined as nearly as possible, but above all, may we be mightily revived in our own hearts and be baptized anew with the Holy Spirit.

VIII. It is painful to me to have to report the fall of one of our ministers. Brother E. A. Bentzinger was helping save the hay crop and fell out of the meadow or from a load of hay, and though sustaining some fractured ribs and a badly injured elbow, he is thankful it was no worse. Brother Behrens and family were all down with the flu but have recovered their usual health. Brother Longnecker had a turn in the hospital. Brother Newsom was very ill for several days with flu-pneumonia. Arthur, son of Sister and Brother Munster, who has been ill for some months, is yielding nicely to hospital care and treatment. Sister Cochran and her daughter, Mildred, victims of the explosion of a camp stove, are in the hospital. Both are dreadfully burned but the doctors hope for their speedy recovery. Thanking God for the preservation of their lives, we pray for their comfort and grace in the long days of convalescence. Brother T. S. Pool was quite ill for several days and during his sickness Sister Pool went quietly away to heaven. Dr. J. A. Boatman passed away Friday, August 29.

IX. This has been one of the most difficult years of my life, but I submit this report with a thankful heart for all the Lord has been to me and done for me and mine. I have tried to do my best and be brotherly with all. I have appreciated the kindness and loyalty of the brethren. I have enjoyed the hospitality of the parsonage homes and have tried not to impose on kindness in any way. My life will always be richer for the friendship of the children of the parsonages. I esteem their love very highly.

We have a membership of many noble laymen and women who are gifted and capable. O, Methodism of the Burlington District! We can do anything that needs to be done for the Lord. By His grace let us go forward with greater alacrity.

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. SHOOK.

MUSCATINE DISTRICT

Bishop Stuntz and the Members of the Iowa Conference.

Brethren: I hereby submit my final report of the Muscatine District.

CHANGES IN PASTORATES. The only charge left to be supplied, at the close of the Conference, last fall, was Muscatine South, and C. L. Stafford has faithfully and efficiently cared for the work. R. L. LaMott was transferred to Pulaski shortly after the Conference, and Bro. L. A. Crull supplied the charge until March when their former student pastor, Harold Ward, returned from the service and took up the work.

Theodore White, appointed as supply to Tiffin, after two Sundays resigned the work and Bro. S. F. Bishop has served them acceptably, however there were no services there during the winter months on account of the influenza and bad roads. All of our pastors have toiled hard through another most difficult year.

HEALTH. The Muscatine District was afflicted, in common with other fields, with the dread influenza, but we are happy to report that the angel of death has entered none of the parsonage homes.

T. F. Barker suffered a severe attack of hardening of the arteries and will be compelled to ask for the retired relation.

Richard Collier, on account of age and the condition of his wife's health, will also retire. Both of these men of God have been faithful and efficient servants of the church and we regret exceedingly their passing from the active ranks.

Two parsonage homes have been blessed with new babies. A daughter born to Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Ellis, and a son to Rev. and Mrs. John Ellis.

FINANCE. There was an advance of about $2,500 in the amount apportioned for pastors' salaries but this has been entirely inadequate to meet the increased cost of living. I have informed our people that we could not promise to supply them with pastors for less than $1,200 and parsonage.

It is manifestly a mistake to apportion the extra ministerial support on the basis of the pastor's cash salary. What logic is there in requiring a charge of sixty members, paying their pastor $1,000, to pay one-third as much for Conference Claimants as a charge of thirteen hundred members who pay their pastor $3,000? Why should the District Superintendent, when he uses his influence to advance the pastor's salary, at the same time be reminded that he is advancing his own salary? To me it is clear that it would be a decided improvement if the apportioning of the District claim, the Episcopal fund and the monies for the Conference Claimants were distributed on a grade basis, rather than per cented on the cash salary of the pastor. I would suggest that two factors, cash salary and membership for the previous year, be the basis for determining the grade.

It would be a decided forward step if the salaries of the District Superintendents were handled under Plan 2, Paragraph 328 of the Discipline, instead of Paragraph 327, if there really be any plan at the present time.

Several charges have pledged substantial advances in pastors' salaries for the coming year. The finest victory is at Koszta. Under the leadership and personal effort of Rev. C. G. Ellis, Koszta, with one out appointment, will pay at least $1,500 to their pastor and all other ministerial support is fully provided for.

Guernsey has purchased a fine modern parsonage and promises an advance in pastor's salary from $800 to $1,200. Lexington, J. J. Pritchard, pastor, has modernized their church and placed a basement under it at a cost of $2,500, all provided for. Keswick, under the leadership of their pastor, H. E. Butler, has secured the gift of an acre lot of ground for a new church building. The Wellman and Kalona churches have been refrescoed. The parsonage at North English has new hardwood floors. Many other needed improvements have been made and paid for.

THE CENTENARY. The Centenary has had the right of way through the year. The fall session of the District Conference was held at Muscatine and the spring session at Kalona. Both of these were given over to the consideration of the Centenary and strong programs were presented by our men and speakers sent by the office. In addition, early in the spring, a special District Centenary Convention was held in First Church, Muscatine, and I do not hesitate to say that the program compared favorably with those of Omaha or Des Moines. Six sub-district group meetings were held. Dr. E. R. Fulkerson spent twelve days speaking in churches of the district, and Dr. Stanley Carson five. It is difficult to find stronger speakers than these two men.

Wherever at all possible I laid aside the regular work of the district and gave my time exclusively to the work of the Centenary and, on the whole, the pastors have given themselves passionately to this great movement.

The Minute Men were most proficient. We were fortunate in securing Mr. J. B. McNeil as district chairman of the Minute Men, and I doubt whether other districts could report a superior. The district was fully organized and where transportation was at all possible, the churches felt the influence of the visits of the men of the church.

After the worst of the influenza was passed persistent bad roads hindered greatly and well laid plans had to be abandoned because it was impossible to travel overland. It rained every day of the week of the intensive drive and on every day the second week after the close of the drive. I still believe that had we not been hindered by such a deluge of rain our district would have reached the full quota of signed subscriptions. Not all of the charges would have gone over on time but a sufficient number would have reached the goal to have inspired others to the same achievement. As it now is, from the latest reports I have in hand, nine charges have the total amount subscribed, as follows: Wilton, West Liberty, Williamsburg, Washington, Wellman, Lexington, North Liberty, Crawfordsville and Muscatine First, and three have the amount promised but not all signed, Muscatine North, Victor and Letts. We are sore at heart that we can not report everything in full but are sure that the finest spirit prevails. It may be that we are somewhat at fault, for I held constantly before the people that we would not countenance the expert book agent method of securing subscriptions. There are a number of charges in which a few mistaken laymen persistently oppose the Centenary, but I have yet to hear of a single subscriber who has expressed regret for the part taken, and the year has been, by far, the best in the matter of finance for local support.

The district has reached the quota in the matter of pledges for Life Service. One church, Washington, has fifty young people who signed the pledge and Williamsburg thirty-eight. About one-half of the quota of tithers has been pledged.

SPIRITUAL CONDITION. This has been another year that try men's souls and many of our pastors will come to this session of the Conference sorely disappointed.

The Epworth League still suffers greatly as the result of disorganization, but the pastors are all doing their best to rally the forces and in some quarters the response has been fine. In the matter of the Junior League the problem of securing superintendents still hampers greatly but we have some excellent Junior Leagues. The District League Convention was held at Victor and a strong program presented.

Likely the Sunday School will show a decrease in attendance and I presume that all kinds of theories will be advanced as to the cause, but anyone who knows anything at all about church work knows that it must suffer if closed for weeks at a time.

I presume that there is no more efficient department of our church work than that of the Ladies' Aid Societies and they have not failed to come up to their well earned reputation this year.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies have made a marked advance this year and each held profitable conventions.

It has been impossible, in most cases, to hold any extended series of revivals. Rev. Collier was fortunate in having arrangements made before Conference and shortly after the beginning of the year he opened his campaign, he doing the preaching and his young people conducting the singing. He was compelled, after about ten days, on account of the coming of the influenza, to discontinue, but not until he had seen twenty-five of his young people bow at the altar and give themselves to Jesus. It is an easy thing to say that we must have young men to reach the young people, but here is a man of God in his seventy-second year, who was able in the last year of his active ministry, to lead practically all of the young people of his congregation to the Lord.

Kalona and Oxford have each been blessed with fruitful revivals in each of which the pastor was assisted by Miss Saylor.

There seems to be a perilous tendency to regard sin as a form of disease and to lose sight of the peril, both for the present time and the world to come. Is the old time power gone? Can we have no more sweeping revivals? Must we fall back upon the ingenuity of men to persuade men to join with us? Reliable information brings us word of the mighty outpourings of God's Spirit on the people in foreign lands, and we believe showers of blessings are in store for us. Shall we not pay any necessary price to have a part in the winning of at least a million souls for Jesus by June 1st?

A FINAL WORD. I was not appointed to the District by any desire on my part. In fact I would have much preferred not to have had my work, as a pastor, broken into, but we are Methodist preachers and we must hold ourselves subject to the will of our church. I have striven to do the best I could and give all of myself to the district. No one is more conscious of mistakes than myself or will remember them longer.

All in all I have had a fine time and have thoroughly enjoyed much of the work. God has given me good health, as I have not been compelled to miss an appointment on account of personal illness during the six years. It has been a delight to visit the parsonage homes and be so intimately associated with the pastors and their families, and become acquainted with such a body of Methodists as are found within the bounds of the Muscatine District. More and more we have come to be convinced that nearly all of the people are just all right. We will ask the Bishop to appoint pastors to thirty-seven charges this fall, and had it not been for the scarcity of preachers we would have carried out plans for forty pastoral charges in the Muscatine District the coming year. Six years have slipped away. I will gladly receive my appointment to a charge, but assure you that often my heart will be out among you on the district and pray God's richest blessings upon us all.

Sincerely, Your brother,

H. F. GILBERT.

OSKALOOSA DISTRICT

Dear Bishop and Brethren of the Iowa Conference:

I present to you, this, my fifth annual report of the work on the Oskaloosa District with a deep sense of gratitude to God for his constant presence and help throughout the year.

Though almost every parsonage family has suffered sickness at sometime in the year, none of them has been stricken by the hand of death. The ravages of influenza, scattering death on every hand, were very serious over the district and extended through six months of the year, some churches being closed for thirteen consecutive weeks, and some being closed as many as three different periods between the first of October and the first of April. It is needless to say that such conditions hindered success in carrying out extended programs of church work. However, in the face of great difficulties, the pastors were faithful in ministering to their people; visiting the sick where not forbidden; preparing food for the hungry, and keeping fires for the comfort of the helpless.

Several changes in the pastorates have occurred since our annual session a year ago. Two charges, Lynnvile and Harvey, were left to be supplied. I immediately secured the services of a young farmer, John Klein, for Lynnvile. He has proved very faithful and acceptable in caring for the charge, though he continued to live on the farm and do his farm work. It was more difficult to supply Harvey, and not until the third man did I get one who met the demands of the situation in the person of Craig Tinney, who had just been honorably discharged from the navy and who took the charge on May first, and has done well, considering the discouraging conditions under which he has had to labor.

Within a month after the last Conference, Bishop Matthew S. Hughes made changes in my district force, appointing L. G. Rohrbaugh, University pastor at Iowa City; W. A. Smith to Hedrick, and J. D. O'Dell to Delta. On January first I released W. A. Smith from work within my district and gave him to Dr. Perdew. P. M. Conant, having received honorable discharge from the chaplaincy at Camp Funston, was appointed to Hedrick. I had the promise from a probationer in the West Virginia Conference that he would take charge at Thornburg, succeeding J. D. O'Dell, but at the last minute he failed me, and that charge was vacant until the first of May, when Bishop Quayle transferred to us W. E. Tinney from the Missouri Conference, and he was appointed to Thornburg.

About the middle of the year, I released C. Cray Jones from Barnes City charge, that his wife might find better climatic conditions to relieve her from asthma which had been growing more serious for some years. He was transferred to Greenleaf in the Kansas Conference, and J. A. Moorman was transferred from Missouri and appointed to Barnes City.

Rose Hill church on the charge of the same name refused to accept the supply appointed to serve them and they were without a pastor until the first of March, when I sent them two students, Ernest Russell for Rose Mill, and Frank Getty for Indianapolis. Taintor has been supplied a part of the year by V. W. Bastain and a part of the year by C. G. Curry. The Conference year closes with thirty-eight pastors, twelve of whom are supplies, including four students.

In matters of finance, the local budget has been well taken of by all the charges, about half of which made increases in estimates for pastoral support. Hayden Chapel on Eddyville charge added $50.00; Killduff, Malcom and New Sharon each added $100.00; Montezuma, $150.00; the following $200.00 each: Attica, Barnes City, Brooklyn, Cedar, Knoxville, Oskaloosa, Reasnor, Thornburg, and What Cheer; Deep River, $250.00; two charges, Ollie-Pekin and Sonora added $300.00; Grinnell $400.00. A total of $3,500.00 increase in pastoral support.

Some charges greatly needing to make increases and fully able to do so, refused. On not any charge has increase in pastoral support kept pace with increase in cost of living, and it is sad to know that now and again we find laymen, narrow-visioned, unprogressive, ultra-conservative, stingy, who oppose any increase in support for their pastor. But brethren of the ministry, after that is said, it is generally true, that the pastor who is faithful, earnest, diligent, and tactful in the spiritual leadership of his people finds a glad and generous support. Our good and up-to-date laymen are realizing more and more that a ministry adequately supported renders better service and is better worth the money than a ministry poorly paid.

As to the Centenary or Benevolent budget, support for it has been good, bad and indifferent. Oskaloosa and Knoxville subscribed their total Centenary askings with a liberal margin, as did also Zion on the Attica charge. Other charges reaching their quota are Cedar, Fremont, Givin, Grinnell and Killduff. Sonora and Sheridan churches on Sonora circuit reached their quota.

There was some indifference toward this great movement with a few of the pastors and much indifference and opposition among many laymen. As a district we secured subscriptions for about sixty-five per cent of the askings. It will require patient, persistent effort to collect full payment of these subscriptions.

Among our pastors and people there is universal glad sentiment heartily expressed, approving the action of our college trustees in electing Dr. U. S. Smith president of Iowa Wesleyan. Generous co-operation is promised and optimism prevails for the future of this beloved old college.

Special revival meetings this year have been few and mostly futile. At Grinnell Dr. Brown and Evangelist Reed had a successful revival in the spring. It was attended with marked power in the conversion of sinners and the sanctification of believers.

As to conferences and conventions, we held two sessions of the district conference, the first at Beacon, October 7-9; the second at Reasnor, May 27-28. In both these the time was given almost wholly to training for Centenary work. The annual district convention of the Epworth League was held at Knoxville, June 17-19. The W. F. M. S. district meeting convened at Oskaloosa, April 23-24, and that of the W. H. M. S. at Deep River, May 9-11. On April 2-4 a Centenary Rally at Oskaloosa, with speakers provided by the central office, gave great inspiration to the Centenary campaign. All these meetings were full of helpfulness.

Our ministers and sons of ministers who were reported a year ago as having entered the service of our country in the World War have all received their honorable discharge. Some of them saw service on the front line in France, and some will never again be physically strong because of that service.

Very little has been done this year in improving or building church or parsonage property. The parsonage at Barnes City has been remodeled, under the direction of Pastor Moorman, the cost was $2,600. Many minor improvements at various charges have been made, but we live in hopes of some large needed improvements in the near future. If all the proposed improvements materialize behind which laymen have hid in the Centenary campaign, there will certainly be a great wave of improvements to report next year.

It was my privilege to attend the meeting of district superintendents at Cleveland, Ohio, June 24th and 25th. I am deeply impressed with three convictions: First, that every church must reach its financial quota for the Centenary and not cease efforts until the total asking is secured. Second, that every dollar must be paid and should be used where it will bring the largest returns for the Kingdom of God. Third, that the spiritual program in stewardship, in life-service and in intercession should be faithfully followed up through the Unit System for the perfecting of the church in life and service.

I spent six days at the Centenary Celebration, days of interest and profit. I am glad that at least thirteen of my pastors and a few of my laymen spent some time there. To all of us it meant larger vision and more efficient service.

During the coming year, Evangelism is to receive special emphasis. Though we do not despise traveling evangelists, nor discredit their work, I trust the pastors and churches of the Oskaloosa District will not depend too much upon them, but organize the Unit System and insist on personal evangelism by pastor and people. Pray, organize, preach and work for conversions until the whole district shall be on fire with a holy and intelligent zeal in the deepening of religious convictions and the quickening of consecrated life among our ministry and laity. Then sinners will be awakened and souls be converted and saints will be shouting, hallelujahs to God.

I am persuaded that the sub-districts or groups of charges organized, though not generally utilized for the Centenary, should be continued for the promotion of all the interests of Methodism throughout the district.

Conscious of my many weaknesses and failures; but conscious that I have faithfully done my best; thankful to my pastors and to their families and their people for their patient forbearance, their kindness and their co-operation; and thankful to God for his protecting and guiding presence, I lay at the Master's feet the work of the year, and to my brethren,

Respectfully submit this report.

G. L. MINEAR.

OTTUMWA DISTRICT

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz and Brethren of the Conference:

This report of the work of another year on the Ottumwa District is brought to you with many serious reflections, but with all, a deep sense of our obligation to God for the grace and strength which make His service a delight.

The work has been done under severe handicaps of epidemic quarantine and a long wet season. But the devotion and industry of pastors, supported by wise and earnest laymen, has made the year one of general progress, with marked results in many places.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS. Bloomfield has completed extensive church remodeling begun a year ago. This reconstruction provides an elegant church edifice, handsomely finished and equipped, to meet the needs of aggressive work in Sunday School and other lines of an up-to-date congregation. The cost of $30,000.00 is fully subscribed and the service of jubilee and re-dedication will follow soon after the opening of the new year.

Unionville, by perseverance and growing vision, has finished the reconstruction, which transformed a deficient building into a beautiful village church with equipped basement, art glass windows and fresco finish, at a cost of $2,800.00. The re-dedication service held May 20th was a signal triumph, the entire debt being over-subscribed in the midst of drenching weather. This church, with a vision of its larger opportunity in this field, yearns to become a station and advances the pastor's salary $300.00 for the coming year.

Willard Street, Ottumwa, has spent $1,200.00 in re-decorating, and Lovilia has added a basement at a cost of $1,500.00, while Agency provided a new furnace and electric lights at a cost of $750.00, and Buxton a furnace at a cost of $600.00. Much needed improvements on church and parsonage in roofing, papering, painting, etc. have been made at Floris, Ashland, Leando, West Grove and other places.

Over much of the district an awakening for the improvement of property is long overdue. A conservative estimate would list more than fifty churches of this district which must be reconstructed or replaced with better buildings and equipment to reach the requirements of the more aggressive forms of church life which make the church the center, as it should be, of evangelistic, social and enlightening ministry for the community.

EVANGELISM. Plans for evangelistic meetings in early winter were indefinitely postponed by the quarantine of public gatherings, continuing in some places for many weeks. Continued wet and muddy highways in late winter and spring, brought most discouraging conditions for protracted efforts. For these reasons, as well as the absorbing interest of the Centenary, the usual number of evangelistic meetings has not been held; however, Exline and Salem on the same charge, Belknap, Farson and Unionville have seen a number of conversions by protracted effort. Main Street, Ottumwa, has sounded the evangelistic appeal from week to week, and Douds-Leando has recently closed a tent meeting in which more than one hundred people sought their way into the Kingdom.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT. The records will show salaries well paid up and larger than last year. The increase for the district is over $5,000.00 and more than $8,000.00 for the two years just closing. Amounts on individual charges ranging from $100.00 to $400.00.

Quarterly conference members and congregations are responding to our effort to present the claims of our ministry to a support sufficient to meet the advance of living prices. Prospects for the coming year are even more encouraging—some liberal advances have already been promised by estimating committees. No church on the district served by a married resident pastor will fall below $1,200.00 and house.

The movement, so long delayed, for breaking up the circuits into smaller units, has begun. Our former congregations, enjoying unprecedented prosperity are being moved to share generously with the cause of Christ, making it possible to increase and intensify pastoral service by decreasing the number of preaching places from three, four and five, to stations or double stations. Our chief embarrassment will be in finding competent men in these days of the decline in number of candidates for our ministry, to take charge of these developing fields. We are staking much on the work of the Rural Department of the Home Missionary Board to secure and train men for rural work, which, in the not distant future, will be among the most attractive fields in all the range of varied appointments in our great church.

AUXILIARY SOCIETIES AND CONVENTIONS. The Woman's Foreign Missionary and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies not only gather large funds for their special work abroad and at home, but with their young people's and children's organizations, have rendered invaluable service as schools for missionary study and the cultivation of the missionary spirit. Many of the churches are yet to be entered by one or both of these societies, whose work ever proves invigorating to the spiritual life of the church which maintains it. Conventions were held by the Foreign Society at Moulton and by the Home Society at Keosauqua, where excellent programs were presented.

The Ladies' Aid Society continues to do a much needed and important work in promoting social fellowship and raising funds to supplement the financial resources for the care of property and to meet other necessitous conditions.

The Epworth League and the Junior Epworth League even more so continues a rather hesitating existence. However, some of the most active of both Senior and Junior flourish in the smaller churches. The annual convention held in May at Mystic carried out a full and varied program which was featured by life consecration services to which a large number of young people of the district responded.

THE CENTENARY has been the one absorbing task for at least two-thirds of the year. Following the last annual conference, plans were made to give emphasis to this movement with all forces and resources available. The autumn session of the District Conference held at Agency in October was completely given to the Centenary. Every pastor in the district was placed on the program by the program committee and kept his appointments by participating in the discussions. The presence of Bishop Lewis and other speakers from the central office illuminated the discussions, and inspired with lectures and addresses. Pastors carried the inspiration to their people, and most of them began their program of education in the churches.

Minute men were appointed and units organized, effecting excellent results in many places. The district was sub-divided into nine groups each with a group captain, chairman of minute men and campaign leader. The general district organization was effected with John Wormhoudt, as chairman district council; John H. Morrell, campaign chairman; R. E. Wellman, chairman of minute men, and E. L. Stickney, secretary.

A number of pastors and laymen attended the Area Convention at Omaha, and that of the state at Des Moines. In the early spring a District Convention was held at First Church, Ottumwa, with a team of speakers from the central office. Pastors and laymen from most of the churches were present. During the entire campaign our pastors for the most part, showed full sympathy with the movement and carried out the program with unquestioned devotion. The laymen were co-operative and responsive. But for the delays in carrying the work forward in the churches compelled by quarantine and wet weather, we are convinced that the district would have measured up to all expectations and gone "over the top" early in the campaign. These handicaps, however, slowed down and delayed the canvass in many places to so late a day as to bring it in conflict with the work of finance committees on local expenses making it advisable to defer the finish until after the opening of the new year; however, there has been subscribed to date a good total of $301,455.00, which is over 80% of the total allotment for the district.

The results of the stewardship campaign of education are, two thousand people in the League of Intercession, seven hundred and forty joined the Methodist Million by signing the Tithers' Covenant, and fifty-five young people made their life work decision to enter some line of Christian service.

CENTENARY BY-PRODUCTS. All the results of such a movement are not possible of tabulation. The awakening to the privileges and obligations of stewardship, which has come to many men, changing forever the current of life for them; the larger vision which is given to the church, as a whole pushing back the horizons and lifting men out of narrow, selfish and provincial notions, to focalize upon the main purpose for which Christ died and the church was called into being, even the salvation of the whole world, are among the re-creative elements which will produce a new church, which shall become a mighty world power in a new age of recognized world interests and world covenants among the nations. The definite part assigned to the laymen as counsellors, unit workers, canvassers and minute men has enlisted much latent ability among our laymen, while the Unit System provides a workable organization for the local church. It is with pleasure that we here record our appreciation of the efficient help given by teams of minute men by their fervid presentation of the claims of the Centenary in their own and other churches.

Two church rebuilding enterprises have sprung up in the midst of Centenary agitation. Cantril reports over $2,500.00 and Exline over $1,500.00 subscribed for remodeling during the canvass for Centenary funds, the latter church having also over-subscribed the Centenary allotment by a good margin. All the features of the Centenary, including the unprecedented giving of money for Kingdom purposes, has laid a basis for great spiritual advance and evangelistic effort to which we are called in the coming months.

THE SECOND OBJECTIVE. This district will be in line for the next great advance proposed by the Cleveland Convention, to win a million people to Christ before the first of June, 1920. The work is already taking shape in some charges where unit leaders and minute men are being prepared to stress intensive evangelism. Douds-Leando is the first charge in the district to launch a protracted meeting following the financial canvass. This was a summer tent meeting in a busy farming community at the threshing season, but resulted in 112 conversions and 80 accessions. The pastor was his own evangelist aided by a gospel singer, and this after having his charge "Over the Top" in the canvass for Centenary subscriptions. Other charges will follow this excellent lead, until the coming months we trust shall find every church in the district the center of evangelistic effort, both intensive and extensive, resulting in the conversion of hundreds of people and deepening the spiritual life of the church.

HEALTH OF THE PASTORS. While a number of parsonage homes have been afflicted by the influenza, only one has been saddened by death. Little Marguerite, the eight-year-old daughter of Brother and Sister C. B. Rayhill, pastor at Unionville, slipped from the arms of bereaved parents to the loving embrace of Him who said, "Suffer the little children and forbid them not to come unto Me."

Many have been the losses by death from the ranks of our official laymen. But few churches on the district which have not been called to mourn the death of one or more men wise in counsel, faithful and devoted in service. The Ottumwa District as a whole mourns the loss of such men as Mr. Chris. Haw, prominent in all our councils, far-sighted in vision, loyal in devotion to all interests and enterprises of his church and friend extraordinary to Methodist preachers.

In closing, we gratefully acknowledge a very gracious hospitality of both pastors and laymen and their families.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. PERDEW.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES, BOARDS, ETC.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

APPOINTMENTS.—The Board of Stewards requests the Bishop to appoint the Rev. John C. Kendrick financial secretary of the Permanent Fund of the Iowa Conference.

APPORTIONMENTS.—The claims on the Conference approximate $35,060. REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON GENERAL CONFERENCE MEMORIALS

We, your committee, report:

That the memorial from Newark Conference relative to co-ordination of Home Missionary Agencies and a unification of the same be submitted to Conference without recommendation.

The Iowa Annual Conference hereby respectfully memorializes the General Conference of 1920 to lay upon the Board of Examiners in each of the Annual Conferences the responsibility of organizing a yearly institute of not less than five days' duration at which the under-graduates shall receive an introduction to the subjects and books to be studied by them during the year; and that we commend the plan of directions and helps for the under-graduates, and further

That the General Conference of 1920 return the responsibility of selecting the books for the courses of study to the Board of Bishops, whose constant touch with the practical life and needs of the world will enable them to judge with more certainty what books and what balance of books and subjects should best equip for the church's ministry; and further,

That a Counselling Committee of five be appointed, one by the Board of Education, one by the University Senate, one by the Educational Association, one by the Book Committee and one at large to be chosen by the other four, whose duty it shall be to advise with the Board of Bishops in selecting the books for the courses of study.

The Secretary of the Iowa Annual Conference is hereby requested to forward to the Secretary of the General Conference a copy of this memorial.

Whereas, In many places the time has come when in the interest of national and church unity, as well as for the sake of economy in man power and money, the continuation of foreign language churches and conferences is no longer desirable nor essential to the program of Kingdom extension; and

Whereas, We fully recognize and appreciate the real service rendered by such Foreign-speaking Conferences to the church and Kingdom of God and therefore do not feel that drastic measures or undue consideration should prevail in reference to their discontinuance, yet fully persuaded that their continuance is unavoidable, be it resolved,

That the Iowa Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby respectfully memorialize the General Conference of 1920 to consider carefully the entire question involved and to take such steps as may be necessary for incorporating the various foreign-speaking congregations into the English-speaking Conferences in whose territory they are situated, and further, be it resolved,

That a time limit of not less than eight years and not more than twelve years be set for the consummation of the action proposed in the foregoing resolution, and further,

That we instruct the Secretary of the Iowa Annual Conference to notify the Secretary of the next General Conference of our action.

REPORT OF ACTING PRESIDENT OF IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

Brethren:

As acting president of your college during the year 1918-19, it becomes my duty to render a report.

The academic year 1918-19 was without parallel in the history of American collegiate education. The exigencies of the war had withdrawn a large proportion of the promising men of courage and determination, and not a few of the young women, who felt a call to patriotic service. Then came the new draft law imposing military obligation on the boys from eighteen to twenty-one years of age, disturbing the minds of many remaining students and causing uneasiness even in the high schools.

The plans of the Committee on Education of the War Department provided for military training of young men in connection with the colleges, enrolling them in the Students' Army Training Corps of the United States Army, under a sort of joint administration of the college authorities and a designated military officer. It is not necessary to say that this plan did not result in material advantage to the colleges. The officers selected were in most cases inexperienced and commonly not in sympathy with college aims and standards, and the divided authority left room for many misunderstandings between the military officers and the college administration. Much additional expense was imposed on the colleges in providing barracks hospitals, canteens, mess rooms and other facilities and equipment, of no permanent use to the colleges. Moreover, interference with studies was frequent and insurmountable. The college programs of study were reconstructed under orders from the Military Department and the educational purpose of the colleges compromised. Iowa Wesleyan shared in the difficulties and disappointments incident to the plan in a manner and to an extent which caused much perplexity, both to the business manager and the faculty. It may be stated, however, that our difficulties were not greater than those of other schools throughout the country and by returning at once, after the disbanding of the S. A. T. C., to our regular order we were able to finish the year with gratifying results as to scholarship and general educational efficiency. But it must be admitted that our plans for improved standards and for the systematic conduct of our educational activities were much hindered.

The prevalent epidemic of influenza added to the problems of the college. Many of our students, and some members of the faculty, suffered an attack of influenza, but thanks to Divine favor our college constituency was not invaded by death.

The attendance for the year showed some decrease as compared with the years preceding the war, but was really gratifying in view of all the circumstances. The graduating class numbered twenty-one, but four of them men. There is an excellent prospect of a largely increased attendance for the ensuing year.

The faculty worked harmoniously and in the main with a sincere Christian devotion to the aims and purposes for which Iowa Wesleyan was founded. There were several changes, which causes much anxiety, just before the opening of the academic year, but the Faculty Committee, who had charge of appointments during the interval between the withdrawal of Dr. Schell from active service and the beginning of my responsibility, filled vacancies with the best available candidates. In most instances these proved to be efficient and they adjusted themselves to the situation admirably. Some changes in the personnel of the faculty for next year have been made necessary by resignation and other causes. Whatever vacancies remain will be filled before the college opens. The new president is one with myself in the effort to secure consecrated, scholarly men and women for all the teaching positions, and to maintain high standards which shall be everywhere recognized.

The Conservatory of Music which had been under the private administration of Dr. Rommel for many years was transferred to the complete control of the college at the close of the year 1917-18, and Elmer K. Gannett was elected director and teacher of voice. The work of the year in this department was on the whole very satisfactory. While the conservatory was not entirely self-supporting, a good foundation was laid for the years to come. The attendance was gratifying and the work of the chorus and the Glee club gave promise of large possibilities for general musical culture in the college and the community.

Of our financial situation it is not necessary to speak in detail. A large preliminary expense was incurred in providing for the S. A. T. C., but after long delay and much unravelling of red tape the college was reimbursed for the outlay on what was possibly a fair basis, though not sufficiently to compensate for the anxiety and perplexity of the business management. With the high cost of living and of materials, expenses have increased on every hand. There is an inevitable demand for an increase of the compensation of teachers, and it has been found very difficult to fill vacant positions at the salaries which the college has been able to offer. It is not fair, and it is not wise, to ask teachers and officers to serve under conditions which involve sacrifice of reputation or dignity, or which deprive them of means of personal and professional growth. To meet the increased cost of maintenance and to provide for development there is need of larger contributions from the churches and of generous gifts from men of larger means. It is idle to talk of a greater Wesleyan and even impossible to maintain present standards unless benefactions are increased. The necessity is absolute. It is a question of growth and progress or of a lingering illness and prolonged agony of dissolution.

A happy event of the year was the election of Dr. U. S. Smith, one of yourselves, to the presidency of the college by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees at the annual meeting in June. Dr. Smith has the advantage of being well and favorably known throughout the conference. He has begun his work auspiciously and he is evolving plans for the future which his past record gives assurance of successful realization.

As we stand in view of the task laid upon the college and the opportunities which await the devotion and efficient co-operation of the Conference, the alumni, the friends and the general constituency of Iowa Wesleyan, the word I bring to you, and wish to emphasize, at this Conference session is "speak to the children of Israel that they go forward."

Faithfully yours,

SAMUEL WEIR.

DEACONESS BOARD

Your Board of Nine met in business session on Thursday, September 4th, and submit the following report:

Class of 1922 elected as follows: Mrs. L. G. Murphy, J. W. Lambert, E. W. Stodghill.

Licenses renewed: Marie Jericho, Muscatine; Aura Hopkinson, Burlington; Wilhelmina Wertz and Mary C. Jackson, Keokuk.

The report of Graham Protestant Hospital was most cordially received, recording, as it does, the greatest year of progress and service in the history of the institution. It has been made a unit in the Association of Methodist Hospitals, and chosen to receive and care for government employes in that vicinity requiring medical and surgical attention.

Your Board regrets the lessening of interest in the deaconess work in the bounds of our Conference, and prayerfully recommends to our ministers and laymen the importance of recognizing this element of service and power in our Centenary campaign for souls.

COMBINED REPORT OF COMMITTEES ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

AS CITIZENS, we rejoice in the victory of Democracy over Autocracy in the World War, and pledge our full share of service to make democracy safe for the world.

We commend inter-racial councils as a preventive of race riots, and industrial councils to promote justice and peace between labor and capital. In this time of social and political unrest in the nation, the church must hold firmly to the practice of the principles of true brotherhood. Our nation dare not tolerate the teaching of anarchy under any form; and the church is expected to set an example in godly patriotism.

Although we have national prohibition, we must not cease our educational campaign against intemperance, and for law enforcement. We do not believe that "the cigarette won the war." At any rate, the war is over, and the cigarette should go.

We heartily indorse the campaign against all forms of vice; for better housing conditions for the poor; for the prevention of disease; for the use of the English language in all public schools, and a "literacy" test in English for all voters.

AS A CHURCH, we are proud of the financial success of the Centenary. But, unless this money be wisely invested, and unless young men and young women give themselves for service in the spirit of the Christ, it will be only evidence of the "pride that goeth before a fall." Therefore we need to continue the prayer league; to carefully organize the local church that "all things may be done decently and in order" in every department; to carry on through the year "an intensive campaign for souls" that, with God's blessing, will qualify us for "the larger evangelism" of the world.

REPORT ON HOSPITALS

Only words of high commendation may be spoken for our Church Hospitals.

The Iowa Methodist Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, reports a year of unprecedented business with a steady increase in the free bed and dispensary service, at an expense of over $20,000 for the year. Owing to the erection of new buildings and necessary equipment in recent years a burdensome debt of nearly two hundred thousand dollars has accumulated and must be met. The excessively high cost of all necessary hospital supplies, in many cases reaching extraordinary prices, has added greatly to the embarrassment and yet no item of practical need for the highest grade of efficiency has been omitted. Instead, the high level of hospital, medical and surgical efficiency has been maintained in every department. This has given the hospital an enviable record manifest in increasing patronage and surely justifying an appeal for constant and abundant assistance in supplies, patronage and money.

With an exceptionally fine training school for nurses, and a service of over a hundred nurses; with two hundred beds available for patients; with a free dispensary open every day; with well equipped departments for the treatment of special cases, this hospital is ready to meet any reasonable demand that may be made.

We approve the maintenance of continued financial support and a response from the Conference in funds, collections, supplies and helpful friends commensurate with its work and needs.

We recommend that there be raised in the Conferences of the State the sum of $20,000 and apportioned this year to the Conferences on a grade basis, making our own apportionment at least as large as last year, or $3,470.00

We nominate as directors for the ensuing year, W. P. Stoddard, W. C. Wasser and J. W. Pool.

Graham Protstant Hospital. Your committee notes with sincere pleasure the growth and ever widening field of service of this hospital, conducted by the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Keokuk, Iowa. Substantial improvements made during the past year have added very materially to the convenience of those having charge and to their efficiency in service. We heartily commend its ministry of healing to all needing help and living in that section of the state.

We endorse with enthusiasm the White Cross Movement and pledge it our unqualified support.

For the Committee.

TEMPERANCE

We congratulate the temperance forces of our State and Nation on the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment to our National Constitution prohibiting forever the beverage liquor traffic in the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, and which is effective now and becomes operative January 16, 1920.

The liquor forces are greatly enraged at the adoption of the Amendment and have provided large sums of money, employed eminent legal counsel and secured men of great executive ability, and are fighting desperately to bring about its nullification, or at least a modification of its provision.

THE FOLLOWING CAMPAIGNS of general scope have been proposed and financed, and are now being conducted by the wet interests—the respective brewery, saloon, distillery, wine and hotel organizations:

1. To have the Prohibition Amendment declared invalid by the courts on technical grounds.
2. To secure a referendum in various states and under it defeat approval of ratification.
3. To nullify the Amendment by blocking the passage by Congress of effective enforcement legislation.
4. To secure submission and ratification of a "beer and wine" amendment to the Federal Constitution to supplant the general amendment recently ratified.
5. To build an anti-Prohibition organization in every community and collect a monster petition with millions of signatures as an excuse for defiance of the law.

They are pushing their campaign with great energy throughout the entire country, with headquarters in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, and getting much help and encouragement from England, France, Spain, Portugal and Italy. They thus make the struggle, not only nation-wide, but world-wide, and force the temperance people to face the big strategy of the campaign, which we trust shall witness the final enveloping movement for the annihilation of the traffic throughout the world. Temperance people who imagine the fight is over should wake up and lend a hand.

We hereby record our most indignant protest against certain newspapers and other periodicals which persist in circulating the gross falsehood that the Anti-Saloon League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union are engaged in a campaign for such amendment to our Federal Constitution as shall prohibit the sale and use of tobacco. The statement is officially and frequently denied by both organizations and denounced as pro-liquor propaganda and bait for wet recruits.

The coming primary election contests in Iowa are of vital importance to temperance voters. The liquor forces are already very actively engaged in bringing out their candidates. If their efforts are not vigorously resisted and their purpose defeated, prohibition of the traffic in our state will suffer greatly from lax law enforcement. Let us do our utmost in all proper ways for the election of officers who will enforce our laws.

We heartily endorse the work of the Anti-Saloon League and bid it God-speed in its efforts for world-wide prohibition, and pledge our hearty support.

We are highly pleased with the general management of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League. The past year has been the best in its history. C. S. Cooper and F. E. Day are nominated to represent us on the Board of Trustees.

We commend to all our people the work of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, the official organization within the church to carry on the temperance work in all departments of church activities.

We urge all our churches to hold a temperance anniversary during the year under the auspices of the Quarterly Conference Temperance committee, and that in every Sunday School, on Temperance Sundays, an opportunity be given to sign the total abstinence pledge.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

We, your Committee on Epworth League, beg to report the following:

Whereas, the work of the Epworth League in China has for many years been unable, because of the lack of funds, to do satisfactory and efficient work, and whereas, our good Bishop Lewis comes to us with the statement that unless by the first of November this needed support shall be provided for, our work in that country must be turned over to interdenominational interests.

Therefore be it resolved, that we as a Conference adopt the plan as suggested by the Central Office, and endorsed by Bishop Lewis, of the raising of $10,000, by each district raising $100 of the amount.

Whereas, the leadership of our church has endorsed an Evangelistic Campaign for one million souls in Methodism in the next twelve months; therefore be it resolved, that we endorse such campaign and pledge them our hearty co-operation and support and that each Pastor and E. L. President shall make an effort to increase the army of Epworth Herald readers in each church.

We recommend as the committee for the coming year the following: C. E. Burdine, M. A. Banker, Lloyd Tenant, E. A. Bentzinger and W. A. Smith.

Respectfully submitted,

RESOLUTION

In as much as it has pleased Almighty God in his providence to remove from our midst our dearly beloved friend and brother, Chris. Haw; be it resolved that the members of the Iowa Conference express their deep regret at the loss of this loyal and time tried friend and brother. Brother Haw, with his broad vision and genuine Christian experience, was probably the best friend the Iowa Conference has ever had.

He was not only interested in, but intimately associated with, all the movements of the church. He was for many years a loyal supporter and trustee of Iowa Wesleyan. For a large term of years treasurer of the Permanent Fund. Twice he was elected as lay delegate and represented us at the General Conference. In every cause for righteousness he was in the foreground. His sane and careful business judgment was of inestimable value in the organization and operation of all the departments of the church with which he was associated. He was a charter member of the Main Street Church in Ottumwa, and through all the years of his life since its organization was its chief supporter and adviser.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the pages of our Conference journal, and a copy be sent to Mrs. Chris. Haw.

JAMES AUSTIN BOATMAN.

The subject of this sketch, James Austin Boatman, son of Elizabeth Wallace and James Carver Boatman, was born in Madison county, Kentucky, February 7th, 1848. He attended the common schools in the local community and soon after his conversion at the age of 17 years, feeling that the ministry should be his life work, he went to Berea College, Berea, Kentucky, where he spent two years as a student. In 1870 he was received on trial in the Kentucky Conference and was assigned to Home Mission work in Wayne county, serving Cumberland City and Meade Circuit. In 1872 he was appointed to Hardin Circuit in Hardin county, and on August 15th of that year he was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Wheeler at Union Star, Breckinridge County, Kentucky. Two children were born to this union, Lillian Forest, wife of John Robert Boatman, of Louisiana, Mo., and Oliver Wheeler Boatman of Phillipsburg, Kentucky.

Recognizing his need of further equipment for the work of the ministry he and his wife went to DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana, then known as Asbury University, from which institution he graduated six years later, in June, 1879. He then returned to his home conference and served one and a half years as pastor at Louisa, two and a half at Augusta, and six months at Tolesborough. In April, 1883, he transferred to the Iowa Conference with which he was identified the rest of his life, and in which he soon came to be esteemed for his ability as pastor and preacher. His true Christian character and sweet brotherly spirit made him many friends wherever he went. Among his brothers in the ministry in particular there was established a bond of sympathy and fellowship that strengthened year by year. He was indeed a brother who loved and was loved by the brethren of the Conference. In his intellectual life there was unusual breadth. His natural inclination was that of the student. In his reading he was diversified. His conversation betokened a full man and stimulated thought in others. He was a student of history, philosophy and of languages, as well as theology, church history and church law. In current literature he kept well abreast of the times and was ever a close student of current events. In 1900, while pastor at Keokuk, he published a little book, "Paide-Theology," a study of the status of childhood in the Christian scheme. Naturally he was a man who had the very highest appreciation of all things educational. He was the devoted friend of the schools of the church and gave a number of years of faithful service to Iowa Wesleyan as a trustee. This devotion, his scholarly attainments and his high standing as a man and a minister of the Gospel were so compelling and so widely recognized that Wiley College some years ago bestowed on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Born and reared in a border state which though not the scene of battle in the days when the Union was at stake, yet nevertheless was strife torn, he came to manhood a Union man and a patriot in the larger and better sense and through all the years of his ministry he upheld with fidelity American ideals and standards. As a minister of the Gospel and a lover of the church and the Kingdom he was most devoted. Anything which hurt the church or hindered the onward progress of the Kingdom, hurt him deeply. The welfare of Zion was his uppermost thought and he gave himself unstintedly to its up-building. His was a Christ-centered life. He lived for Christ and the church.

His fields of labor and years of appointment in the Iowa Conference have been as follows: Moulton, '83; Newton, '86; Albia, '87; Brooklyn, '89; Washington, 92; Bloomfield, '94; Fairfield, '95; Keokuk, '98; Morning Sun, '01; Ft. Madison, 02; West Liberty, '03; Wellman, '06; Muscatine District, '07. At the conclusion of his term of six years as superintendent of the Muscatine District, Dr. Boatman asked the Conference to grant him the retired relation. The request being granted, he made his home in Washington, Iowa, till November, 1917, when he bought the property at 704 South Central Avenue, Burlington, and located there. Immediately on coming to the city he identified himself with Grace church and its Quarterly Conference, and very soon made himself a place in the hearts of the people. He also became a member of the Ministerial Association of the city where his brotherly spirit was soon recognized, appreciated and reciprocated. That he was in a fair way to become minister to the entire city is evidenced by the

That he was in a fair way to become minister to the entire city is evidenced by the fact that in the past few months he has proclaimed the Gospel message from the pulpits of churches of several different denominations.

Dr. Boatman's last illness was less than a week in extent, dating from Friday evening, August 22nd, and terminating with his death on Friday, the 29th, at 7:50 a. m. There was but little time in this period when he was free from pain and most of the time he suffered greatly and even intensely. But through it all he was patient, thoughtful for others, kind and loving in his every expression. His faith was gloriously triumphant and he went out holding the hand of the Christ he loved and to whom he had dedicated his life. He is survived by his wife, son and daughter who cherish the memory of a loving husband and father. Funeral services were held at Grace church, Burlington, at 2:30 p. m., Monday, September 1st, under the direction of the pastor, W. A. Longnecker. A goodly number of the ministers of the Conference were in attendance, some of whom served as pall bearers. Prayer was offered by C. L. Stafford, H. F. Gilbert, and C. L. Tennant read the scripture lessons. The obituary was prepared and read by W. A. Longnecker. Addresses appreciative of the life and service of the deceased were made by U. S. Smith, T. J. Myers, W. H. Dillon, E. J. Shook, T. S. Bovell of Walnut St. Baptist church, who represented the Ministerial Association of Burlington. Following the services at the church the body was borne to Aspen Grove Cemetery, Burlington, and tenderly and prayerfully laid to rest in mother earth, there to await the resurrection in the last day and the life of the world to come through Jesus Christ our Lord.

MARTHA ANN KENDRICK

Martha Ann Rogers, eldest daughter of Benjamin and Mary Rogers, was born in Jefferson County, Indiana, December 26, 1843, and died in Long Beach, May 28, 1919, aged seventy-five years, five months and two days.

September 29, 1866, she was married to Americus V. Kendrick at Attica, Marion County, Iowa. Of this union were born six children, Rolla M., Mary O., Lena G., May B., Alva A. and William R. C.

In the early childhood she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church and remained a faithful member until death, a period of over sixty years. In the fall of 1873, she, with her husband, entered the itinerant ministry in the Iowa Conference and for thirty-eight years shared with him the toils, hardships, pleasures and triumphs of a minister's life. In each charge, by her quiet, godly life, good, especially with young people, who lovingly called her "Ma Kenrdick." But her greatest influence was in the home. Her children were her chums and confidants and her life, before them, was most beautiful. She molded their lives in such a way that long after entering into rest, she will live in their lives. Truly, her works do follow her.

By her wise council and loving helpfulness, she was a true help-mate of her husband, and in a large measure will receive the reward. As an index to her beautiful esthetic life, her intense love of the beautiful was characteristic. Her little bungalow home, out on East Seventh Street, is embowered in a great variety of fruits, shrubs and flowers; the rose predominates, there being over fifty varieties. She loved them so that as long as she was able, she lived out doors among them, and as her strength failed, she sat in her easy chair and took great pleasure in naming them over, pointing out the distinguishing feature of each.

For many years she suffered much pain and was reduced by disease to a shadow of her former self, but she toiled on uncomplainingly until the Master signed her release, and at 1:20 a. m., May 28th, the wheels of her active life for others stood still, and as but falling asleep, with a beautiful smile lighting up her wan and shrunken features, she quietly passed through the open gate into that home prepared for her by Jesus our Saviour, who said, "Let not your heart be troubled" . . . for "in my Father's house are many mansions," and I have prepared for you an eternal home.

In her going from us, the world is indeed poorer but heaven is enriched and many there who have been helped by her loving endeavor, will meet her at the gate with outstretched hand and receive her to the ranks of those who have, through great tribulation, washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Those of the immediate relatives who survive are her husband, Rev. A. V. Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. Rolla M. Kendrick and daughter, Mary Stephanie, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Chase, of Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kendrick and daughter Geraldine A., of Portland, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. C. Kendrick, and son, Wm. R. C., Jr., of Des Moines, Iowa; also Mrs. Benjamin Roger, and a brother, J. D. Rogers, of Knoxville, Iowa, and Mrs. Robert Stone, a sister, of Abilene, Kansas.

A most simple and beautiful service was held from Patterson and McQuilkin's funeral parlors at 2 o'clock p. m., Monday, June 2nd, conducted by Rev. G. W. Wilson, D. D., a special friend of the Iowa Conference, and assisted by Rev. C. R. Norton, also of the Iowa Conference, and Rev. F. G. H. Stevens, pastor of First M. E. Church, this city. Interment was at Sunnyside Cemetery, Long Beach, California.

MRS. T. S. POOL.

Malinda, fourth daughter of Williamson and Hannah Van Osdol, was born in Des Moines County, Iowa, July 28, 1846, and departed this life at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, December 2, 1918, in the 73rd year of her age. The days of her childhood and youth were spent in her native county, excepting the four years of the Civil War, during which time the family resided in Mount Pleasant. On the 31st day of October, 1867, she was united in marriage with Thomas S. Pool, a native of the same county. The first twenty years of her married life were spent on a farm. In 1887 her husband entered the Iowa Conference and for twenty-seven years she shared the burdens of an itinerant life. In 1914 Mr. Pool retired from the effective ministry, and the family moved to Mount Pleasant, where the remainder of her days were spent. The 50th anniversary of her marriage was celebrated October 31, 1917.

Mrs. Pool was the mother of five children. Rev. John W., a member of the Iowa Conference and stationed at Brooklyn; Alberta V., wife of M. L. Poulter, living in Mount Pleasant; Rev. Robert D., a member of the Oklahoma Conference and stationed at Norman, Oklahoma; Lydia S., a missionary to India; and Mary S., a member of the faculty of the Iowa Wesleyan College. She was converted under the ministry of Rev. Isaac McClasky when eleven years old, and was a member of the Methodist church for 61 years.

The funeral services were held at the home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. R. Keesey, D. D., assisted by Drs. T. J. Myers and E. J. Shook. The remains lie buried in the Forest Home Cemetery at Mount Pleasant. Mrs. Pool was a devoted wife, and affectionate mother and a faithful follower of her Master.

Each of these addresses were followed by discussion of the same.

Dr. J. W. Hancher presented a message from the Annual Conference requesting the appointment of a committee on the Iowa Methodist Hospital, to act with a like committee from their body. G. G. Gloeckler, J. D. O'Dell, Earnest Earley, N. C. Buck, Frank Haw and W. G. Addleman were appointed.

H. M. Havner and A. J. Wood were appointed as a committee to escort the Bishop to our meeting this afternoon.

Afternoon Session

Called to order by president and devotionals held.

The committee on nominations then presented their report, placing in nomination the following as officers for the ensuing year and they were on motion elected:

President—A. N. Jarvis, Burlington.

Vice Presidents—Henry Hervey, Ottumwa; Dean Taylor, Fairfield; R. S. Dix, Muscatine; Earnest Earley, Newton.

Secretary-Treasurer—George E. Wahl, Muscatine.

Address—"Wasting God's Money," Rev. W. S. Moore, Wapello.
Discussion.

The report of the resolutions committee was then presented and adopted as follows:

The Committee on Resolutions of the Laymen's Association of the Iowa Conference in its annual session tenders for adoption the following resolutions:

1st. In the event of the adoption of the Amendment to the Constitution admitting laymen as members of the Annual Conference, we pledge the laymen of our Conference to assume and discharge the consequent obligations to the best of their ability.

2nd. We welcome the privilege of joining in the great evangelistic movement of the church to gather millions into the Kingdom in the near future.

3rd. We urge upon our Association constituency the importance of meeting the many church problems now pending and appealing to the church for solution at the close of the great world war.

4th. We miss in our councils the presence of our deceased brother, Chris. Haw, who, for so many years was a leader in the work and councils of our church and college, and we tender to his widow and family our sincere sympathy in their great loss.

5th. We furthermore call to the serious and prayerful attention of Methodism, the changing relation of the urban and the rural church. No longer can it be superficially assumed that the rural community must put up with inefficiency or inconvenience because it is rural. In matters of religion, as in the conveniences of life, the farmer is not only financially able, but thoroughly desirous of having many of those things formerly esteemed the advantages of city life. It is therefore of the greatest importance to Methodism, that the rural church be served by a ministry, both able and consecrated, and that as speedily as it is possible, the rural charges be made attractive fields of labor for men entering the ministry.

6th. Whereas, Women have been doing successful work in the evangelistic field and supplying pulpits during the war, and, whereas, they have been admitted as delegates to the General Conference, we recommend that they be given all the privileges of ordination at the next General Conference, that are now extended to men.

7th. We extend our thanks to the local church and friends who have so kindly welcomed us to this city. Ed. White, Dean Taylor, A. J. Wood, Dillon H. Payne, committee.

H. M. Havner presented the following resolution, which was on motion adopted:

Resolved: That we recommend to the Annual Conference the extension of the apportionment of eight cents per member for the Wesley Foundation for the coming year.

Address—"Latent Lay Forces," Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, Omaha.

Moved and seconded, that our executive committee be requested to arrange for a session of two and a half days next year. Carried.

Resolution Committee Report

Resolution adopted by the Lay Electoral Conference.

We, the committee on resolutions, beg leave to report as follows:

1. We recommend the adoption of the resolution: Whereas, women have been successful in evangelistic work, and have supplied pulpits during the war, and whereas, they have been admitted as delegates to the General Conference, we recommend that the same rights and privileges be extended to them at the next General Conference as are given to men.

2. Resolved, That as laymen of the church upon whom the maintenance of an efficient ministry largely depends, we recommend that the minimum amount of cash salary paid any preacher, who gives all his time to ministerial work, shall be $1,400. We pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavor to bring every pastoral charge up to this suggested minimum.

3. We recommend to the Annual Conference that an intensive campaign be inaugurated at once for the permanent fund of the Iowa Conference for the purpose of increasing such permanent fund to a grand total of $400,000. This will mean an increase to be raised in the proposed intensive campaign of $300,000. And we hereby pledge the support and co-operation of the laymen of the Iowa Conference to such a campaign.

XIV HISTORICAL

REPORT OF CONFERENCE HISTORIAN.

To the Iowa Conference:

In the work of the year I have found some items which I trust shall prove of great help in preserving some important events. The interest in the Centenary has been such that I have had framed for the historical room at the college the picture secured last year for the meeting of the District Superintendents at Columbus, Ohio, thus handing down to coming members of the Conference this historical gathering as represented by this able body of men. In order that we might have some history within reach I have also had bound a complete file of the Centenary Bulletin, containing a vast amount of information in regard to the great Centenary of Methodism.

I have also plans for having bound a file of the Daily Ohio State Journal of Columbus, containing a daily report of this great gathering and thus handing down to coming generations these facts that will grow with intense interest as the years pass by.

After consulting with members of the Conference, the effort to secure the historical picture of the members of the Conference at this session was launched, which, I trust will be made as near complete as possible, a copy of which will be secured for the Conference collection at Mt. Pleasant. These pictures are full of interest. Of those who were with us when the Conference met at Muscatine in 1903, thirty-seven have completed life's work and joined the angelic throng and forty-seven have in some form dropped out, by transfer or otherwise, from the list of active workers. Of this number Brother Eyestone is in the foreign field, while others are in prominent work in our home land. The Iowa Conference has supplied able workers in many fields, and will no doubt do so in the years to come.

I have received a call for one of those pictures of 1903, from the widow of Brother W. M. Erskine, which I hope to secure.

I trust that members of the Conference may send me or place me in touch with such historical items, within the territory of the Conference, that may be of great value and worthy of preservation. I hope to be able to secure some valuable records concerning the territory from Ottumwa up the river toward Des Moines.

H. C. MILLICE, Historian.

AN AID TO WORSHIP.

PROMPTNESS. If we have an appointment with the Lord at the Church, ordinary politeness suggests that we be on time.

*****
A Church BULLETIN for every month with a program of services is timely and appropriate. Every church that can afford a bulletin should have one. Printers ink is expensive but it is a great thing to let the community know what the church is doing.

*****
Interest in any subject is stimulated by knowledge. With out interest you do not get far in any thing, not even in Church affairs.

Food for thought.

WATCH THIS SPACE NEXT WEEK.

Rural America is made up of 125,000 rural communities, each consisting of a hamlet, village or town center surrounded by a farming district; and 15,000 open country neighborhoods, with out such centers. 53,000,000 people live in these, 33,000,000 on farms in the open country, and 20,000,000 in the villages. More than 3/4 of all negroes more than 1/2 of all the foreign born; 2/3 of all the children; and 3/4 of all the young people in the U.S. live in rural communities.

They are served religiously by 150,000 rural churches of all denominations, 2/3 of which are in the villages and 1/3 in the open country

TWO-THIRDS OF ALL METHODIST CHURCHES ARE RURAL.

Let me ask you a question are the country folks, the country Church and the Country school important? If so Why are they important?. All who will vote Yes help make it a place that the City folks will be jealous of.
